Facts! Facts!

What a great amount of meaning these five letters embrace. Facts made the Father of our Country the hero of truth. Facts have brought many a one to the gallows. Facts was our corner stone. We build our foundation on facts. Our success has been due mainly to facts. Whatever Saur has advertised has always been facts, and in order to increase his trade, if that is possible, he will always stick to truth, which is plain facts. And it is a matter of pleasure to purchasers to know that they can buy goods from a first-class house with the full knowledge that what they buy are as represented. Now, of course, Saur does not exactly boast of this fact, as this is as it should be, but nevertheless it is none the less true. Saur will warrant you at all times that he will give you your money's worth in exchange for your "lucre," and he has always endeavored to sell goods in such a manner as to give not alone entire satisfaction, but to insure your future patronage. He always carries as complete a stock as it is in his power to procure. He never lags to get the best drugs, medicines and books, and in securing the latest novelties the season affords. And now that the Holidays are about upon us he has a most attractive stock of Books and Stationery, Christmas and New Year Cards, Albums, Diaries, School Books, Juvenile Books, and in fact everything in the book and stationery line, and many articles suitable for presents during the holiday season. A full line of Teacher's and Family Bibles, at very low rates. Toilet and Fancy Articles in great profusion, and at such remarkably low prices that you will be astonished beyond measure upon learning them. Saur's Drug and Patent Medicine Department contains every known thing in the medical world, and whatever ailment you may have, a remedy can always be found at his store. Drugs and Medicines all pure and fresh, and nothing sold only as represented. Saur has for years been the King of Paints and Oils. In this department you can find the best brands of White Lead and Mixed and Colored Paints, among which is his celebrated Diamond White Lead. Oils of all kinds, and a stock of brushes surpassed by none. Brushes of every known description. The Wall Paper Department contains a selection of papers of the latest styles, and at very low prices, in fact so low that the poorest need not go without having their walls neatly and comfortably covered. A large stock of Window Shades, both paper and cloth, of the latest styles. There is nothing which makes a home feel and look more comfortable than nice neat wall paper upon the walls and ceiling and stylish window shades hung at the windows. Saur makes a special effort to keep a large stock of these goods on hand at all seasons of the year, so that his customers cannot fail to find what they wish, and he cordially invites an inspection of his goods, whether you wish to buy or not. You will find no one more ready and willing to wait upon customers than the "Little Dutchman" and his clerks. This is another fact which makes Saur's store so popular with the people. Remember, what is stated are all facts, now stop in Saur's Mammoth Drug and Book House and see them verified.

We hope Gen. Neal Dow is not discouraged in his laudable desire to kill the Republican party. It seems a little cruel, however, to hit a party when it is down.—Atlanta Constitution.

The best on earth, can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure, safe and speedy cure of cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds and all other sores. ### Testimonial of Respect

Adopted by Choate Post 66, G. A. R., Napoleon, Ohio, Sept. 17, 1886.

Died, Sept. 12th, 1886, comrade Nathaniel H. Hartman, late Corp'l. Co. G, 163d Ohio. He was mustered into this Post June 25, 1866, and mustered out Sept. 12, by reason of re-enlistment in the Grand Army above and under the banner of our Sovereign, Lord and Master, the Grand Commander of the universe.

Thus "one by one as the years roll on" are our comrades gathered home by our Heavenly Father and commander, where the camp-fires never die out but grow brighter and brighter as the circle round it grows larger and larger—where Reveille is sounded but no taps.

Comrade Hartman was an honored citizen, a kind husband and father, a consistent brother Mason, and a man of many virtues. "The toils and duties of his soldier life are over," but their memories will ever live green in the hearts of his comrades and all those who knew and loved him.

Resolved, That while we grieve over the loss of our comrade, we will emulate his virtues that our last days may be like his, full of that "peace that passeth all understanding."

Resolved, That we tender the bereaved family our tender sympathy in this their hour bereavement.

Resolved, That our Post be draped in mourning for 30 days, and that a copy of this testimonial be sent to the family of our late comrade and be published in the Napoleon papers.

F. M. RUMMEL, C. E. RYNDOLDS,
Capt. Commander.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the M. W. Wards and Brothers of Napoleon Lodge No. 256, F. and A. M.:

The undersigned, appointed a committee on resolutions on the death of Brother Jacob Bales, beg leave to offer the following:

WHEREAS, on the morning of the 20th of September, A. D. 1886, A. L. 6886, it has pleased Almighty God to suddenly summon from among our beloved Brethren, Jacob Bales, in the 64th year of his sojourn here on earth.

Resolved, that in the deceased we mourn the loss of a faithful and upright brother; the family, an affectionate husband and kind father; the community, an esteemed citizen.

Resolved, that we humbly bow before Him, whose call the deceased brother has answered.

Resolved, that we extend most sincere sympathy to the family in this their hour of their desolation.

Resolved, that the lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and the same be furnished each of the county papers for publication.

Fraternally,
JOSHUA KOLLEB,
CHAS. GUDLEY,
A. E. H. MARBERGER.

Defective sidewalks should be put in repair before winter sets in.

Instead of "Much obliged," "Thanks," or "Thanks awfully much," the Anglodones now say "Beholden," or "Very much beholden to you." It's the latest, and quite catching.

Quality not quantity is our motto, and although we have not a great number of baby pictures in our street display, the samples we have are first class and samples of our every day work. After we will have been here 16 or 18 years, we may take a notion to print samples from the great number of negatives we will have on hand and make a great display.

MILLER & KETCHUM.

Heavy premiums are being offered at all the county fairs in Ohio to the couple making application to be married on the fair grounds. At Delaware the business men of the town have all offered prizes to any marrying couple and numerous other towns are being heard from. It would seem from the above information that pumpkins, pigs and patch work are losing their grip when it comes to amusing and interesting fair goers.—Columbia Standard.

THE GLORY OF ST. LOUIS.

A Carnival Unprecedented in the History of This Country.

The Fall festivities in the Western metropolises have always been of the most attractive nature, but this year, all former efforts of not only St. Louis, but of any city in the world, have been outdone. The list of special attractions is simply stupendous. The Great Exposition, which opened September 8th and continues until October 23d, is the grandest mechanical, artistic and trades display ever thrown open to an American public. A special feature is the engagement of Gilmore's world famous band of sixty-five pieces in daily concerts in the mammoth music hall, which has a seating capacity of 10,000.

On Tuesday, October 5th, his mystic highness, the Velled Prophet, with a colossal retinue, will make his annual visit to his beloved city.

The illumination of the principal streets of the city is more general than ever before, and presents a spectacle never equaled for splendor and beauty.

Many other Grand Parades and special displays are promised, including the stupendous and dazzling parades of the St. Louis Flambeau Battalion, the largest organization of the kind on earth.

The Great St. Louis Fair, opening October 4th, has too wide a reputation to need more than passing notice. This year's exhibition, however, will surpass all its predecessors in every particular.

While mentioning thus briefly the great attractions St. Louis has to offer, we are pleased to be able to inform our readers that the Washburn, St. Louis & Pacific Railway has put rates to St. Louis down to the lowest notch, so no one need stay on the score of expense. A handsome little pamphlet, giving the entire programme and full particulars as to rates, etc., has been issued by the Washburn, and can be obtained by applying to any ticket agent of that company.

THE SKINNER GETS SKINNED.

Foraker's Horrible Penitentiary Yarn Officially Disproved.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—The charges made by Gov. Foraker in his speech last night, relative to the skinning of the bodies of James McCoy and Jno. W. Slater, dead penitentiary convicts, by order of Drs. Montgomery and Homes, prison physicians, under Peetzy, have created a great deal of talk. Nearly every prominent Republican deprecates the statements made by the Governor as untrue. Saturday Dr. Montgomery who is in St. Louis, telegraphed to the Columbus Times that the accusations are false in every particular, and the charge a base lie. Dr. Homes, who was here Saturday, went to the penitentiary, where accurate reports of deaths and the disposal of bodies are kept, and secured copies of the death records of McCoy and Slater as follows:

COLUMBUS, Oct. 21, 1885.
Jos. McCoy died Oct. 21, 1885, at 8:55 a. m., of hemorrhoids of the nose, stomach and bowels. [Delivered to Columbus Medical College Oct. 22, 1885.]

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 23, 1885.
John W. Slater died Nov. 23, 1885, at 11:50 o'clock, of consumption.

The doctor also secured the following letters, showing the disposition of the bodies in question:

COLUMBUS MEDICAL COLLEGE,
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22, 1885.

I, G. Peetzy, Warden Ohio Penitentiary—Dear Sir: I hereby make requisition, in accordance with the provision of section 3,673 of the revised laws of Ohio, for the body of James McCoy, deceased, now lying unclaimed in the Ohio Penitentiary. You will please deliver the said body to the bearer, Josiah Medbery, M. D., Prof., etc.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22, 1885.

I do hereby certify that I have this day received the above mentioned body from the Ohio Penitentiary.

WESLEY GALLOGHY, M. D.,
Starling Medical College.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 24, 1885.

I, G. PEETZY, Warden Ohio Penitentiary—Dear Sir: I hereby demand the body of J. W. Slater, who died at the Ohio Penitentiary. This demand is made in accordance with the law providing material for anatomical study, etc. The body will be used for that purpose at Starling Medical College.

J. M. WHEATON, M. D., Prof.

Dr. Homes then make affidavit that the charges made are false in every particular, and Dr. Obetz' demonstration of anatomy at Starling College; also make oath that when the body of Slater was received at the college the skin was intact and the body unutilized in any way.

Dr. Medbery, of the Columbus College, is out of the city, but will make a similar affidavit upon his return. These affidavits are by reliable and reputable citizens. Those presented by Governor Foraker are by convicted criminals. The public will, no doubt, know which are the most to be relied upon as truth.

Charleston and Vicinity Slightly Shaken Up, But no Damage Done.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 27.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here at 5:02 this afternoon, accompanied by a loud rumbling sound. The wave moved from North to South. The shock lasted about two seconds. Houses were shaken perceptibly, and a number of persons rushed into the streets. No damage was done beyond the falling of loose plastering. The same shock was also felt at Savannah, Ga., Summerville, Orangeburg, Cameron, Graniteville, Hopkins, Kingville and Ten-Mile Hill. The work of the relief committee is progressing favorably.
